Thesis Group Advisorship Agreement

Thesis Title: Web - based Computer Aided Instruction for Preschool Students

This agreement is made among the thesis group, the thesis adviser and the thesis coordinator. The thesis group shall work under the technical guidance of the technical adviser in Thesis 1 and 2. The group is responsible for actively seeking advice and requesting assistance that the adviser may be able to extend to improve the quality of their thesis.

The thesis adviser shall, in good faith, provide technical expertise and direction to the thesis group with regards to the thesis content in Thesis 1 and 2. Because of the contributions of the thesis adviser to the success of the thesis, the group must acknowledge the adviser in the thesis cover as their thesis adviser. Should the thesis be submitted for inclusion in conferences, publications and the like, the adviser should be given due credit.

The thesis coordinator shall monitor the partnership between the group and the adviser, and the timely completion of thesis deliverables. The detailed tasks of each party are listed in the thesis manual.
